CHAMPIONSHIP NUMBERS:

Competitors previously allocated a championship number may continue to use that number providing it does not clash with the results based numbering system or use the results based numbering system – based on their finishing position in 2013.

Competitors registering for the 1st time should contact the Championship Registrar to assist with the availability of a specific /traditional Championship number or issuing a class based competition number. You can contact the Championship Registrar at registrar@irishhillclimb.com.

INTER-PROVINCIAL AWARD:

This award is sponsored by National First Aid supplies. It Pits Provence against Provence over the course of the Championship resulting in the highest place Provence being presented with the Inter-Provincial Award at the end of year Awards night. Please make sure to tick the province that you wish to declare for – no declaration-no points.

DICK BAILEY AWARD:

The Dick Bailey Award is presented to the Club which is deemed to have run the best event in the Championship calendar as indicated by Registered competitors and judged by the Chairman of the H/S Committee in consultation with the committee members. In 2014 Competitor polling will be carried out each day of a Championship event. Please indicate your intention should you not wish to vote you will not be requested to do so, if you indicate your intention to vote you must vote at each event at which you compete.
